SECTION 11 - WORK HOURS

D. Rest Periods

Two ten minute rest periods are allowed to employees daily, one in the middle of the first four hour block of the work day and the second in the second four hour block, the last half of the work day. The ten minute rest periods are optional and generally, must be approved by the supervisor. No unused ten minute, rest period may be used to shorten the work day.

A special Thank you

Personnel would like to extend a special thank you to Ed Woolstenhulme in IT, for the wonderful new look on the front page of the Summit -Up Newsletter. We appreciate his help in creating this great new look.

Thanks again,

The Gang at Personnel

A nice calm and respectable lady went into the pharmacy, walked up to the pharmacist, looked straight into his eyes, and said, "I would like to buy some cyanide."

The pharmacist asked, "Why in the world do you need cyanide?" The lady replied, "I need it to poison my husband."

The pharmacist's eyes got big and he explained, "Lord have mercy! I can't give you cyanide to kill your husband, that's against the law! I'll lose my license! They'll throw both of us in jail! All kinds of bad things will happen. Absolutely not! You CANNOT have any cyanide!"

The lady reached into her purse and pulled out a picture of her husband in bed with the pharmacist's wife. The pharmacist looked at the picture and replied, "You didn't tell me you had a prescription."

JUST REMEMBER: If at first you don't succeed, skydiving is not for you.

What Makes a Dad

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so,

He called it ... Dad
